So it really looks like It's gonna be the beginning like the beginning of leading this community or something like that leading these or it could be a family even Leading the business leading something Like somebody is learning how to do this in Like in all the ways that they need whatever a person needs to learn how to do for their next level They're learning it right now So that there is no mistaking, you know, like let's say if your parents left you The pizza shop and you've been working in a pizza shop for you know, I don't know how long at some point You're gonna know how to run things you're gonna know The ins and outs because you know, you might have to run it. Ten of Pentacles

Ten of Pentacles: legacy · wealth

And then a ten of Pentacles, okay Now that's what I'm talking about the only thing I was a little worried about was that eight of sword I feel like maybe there's a mindset or there's something that holds a person back from I Don't know what it is like thinking that They can't do something or thinking that maybe something is not for them It's man. I feel like a person needs to give give to whatever this is They just need to give like I don't know what other plans like I don't know is giving me like a person could have other plans But it's like no a person is supposed to be this emperor like you got to be this emperor You got to be the head of something. Maybe you planned on doing this that in a third But now it's time to be or it could be something where it's like being a father Being a mother. I don't know is it just feels like a person is being prepared For being the leader of others Not the controller of others the leader Okay, maybe guidance kind of thing But definitely leadership That's what somebody is getting ready for it's not for anything other than that I don't know what you know everybody's reading ain't the same but this person right here on this board is getting ready for leadership And a lot of abundance, but it comes with the responsibility You can't just lead people off the cliff It comes with the responsibility here Maybe somebody really thought they couldn't do it, but you won't find out you can you was prepared for you were built for it There's a lot of things that was put in you What is this energy because right after judgment is the ten of Pentacles like you're supposed to be successful you're supposed to have something to pass down You're supposed to have something here some type of material fulfillment some type of success that extends perhaps beyond everyone's years What is this energy here? Okay, what is Where did that day gone cargo I cannot see oh My goodness, are you kidding me right now? I'll just say that car really disappeared like that. Okay, what is it?

17

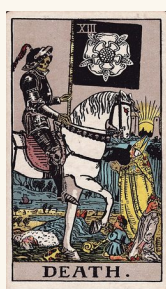

The Lovers

The Lovers: union · a choice

Because that's weird. What is the aid of sword we have the lovers something about being stuck in the mindset of a lover or thinking that you need a person or need a partner Maybe there's someone that feels like it's something that holds them back It could be a partner that holds a person back or a partner that a person can't let go of or they think that this is their end All be all or something like that may hold somebody from going on the adventure I Don't know somebody needs to fight for their destiny If that's the case, I don't know what this could be like a person has been prepared for something so you've been prepared for something When it's time to do what you got to do or you got to lead or you got to do whatever it is

18

Death

Death: endings · transformation

I don't know who this lovers energy is. What is this and we got the death card at the bottom? So I mean that pretty much sums it up right there death Judgment is right here and temperance and then the ten of Pentacles is something where like damn It kind of feels like it may not have been the highest relationship for you or the best relationship perhaps Maybe not if we're talking about a relationship being the aid of sword being the thing that a person Could be mentally stuck on You know they could have a Perspective where they feel like they need this need some type of partnership. Maybe they don't need it may not be for everybody, but it the lovers is there and in the death card and then judgment and then temperance so I don't know it's something about the lovers. It's something about the lovers. Let me let me get something with it because it doesn't automatically mean that someone has to let that partnership go There could be something about the partnership that maybe needs to be looked at or transformed

The Emperor

The Emperor: authority · structure

Or maybe that is what is being worked on before someone becomes the emperor What is this energy? Like somebody may be blocked from doing something that happens to it has to do with a Gemini or it has to do with a 20

Nine of Swords

Nine of Swords: anxiety · worry

Partnership and that's what they're working on. We got the nine of sword here. So the lovers and a nine of sword. Damn No, that's a relationship that is just that's terrible That's a very how can I say? That's a relationship that somebody just doesn't have good feelings about it brings anxiety So whatever that is that has to be let go Because the next card after that was the night of cups like somebody moving forward Like in love or moving forward. How can I say? Towards what they love who they love In a way from whatever that nine of sword is

21

Five of Cups

Five of Cups: grief · loss

Because some I mean let me get one more or less see and then we got five of cups So it's like no like it really is a relationship that brings harm That's what it feels like it feels like a relationship that kind of brings harm and it holds somebody back and it is something like unhealed like and it needs to be looked at so that a person can go on this? I mean, I mean you could call it an adventure, but it's about leading That's what it's about

Page of Cups: intuition · messages

It looks like they're getting past it. We have the page of cups energy

25

Six of Wands

Six of Wands: victory · recognition

Page of cups night of wands and then it's the six of wands So it does look like some type of success, but I don't know what this is that needs the healing though I don't know what that is that needs to come out of five of pentacles Like it just it just can't stay there. I don't know what what it's going to take for a person to graduate that energy But it just really looks like a person is going to get out of this and confidently Okay, a person is going to know what direction they're meant to go To get through because temperance is about balance, but it's like you have to know what is your balance You have to know what is right for you in your path But like once you know and it's something that has been tested and tried you become confident in your energy and that's what this is about Is something it just cannot stay in this five of pentacles. You see how they look out in the cold. It cannot stay there Like a person is going towards like warmth That's where a person is going towards it can't stay with this five of pentacles energy What is here with this?

26

The World

The World: completion · cycle closing

We have the world card

27

The Fool

The Fool: new beginnings · leap of faith

And then we have the fool The last and first major arcana coming out together It really is going to be the beginning of a new story and the closing of an old cycle I don't think whatever that five of pentacles is can be changed Just like I don't think that relationship with the nine of sword and that five of cups energy I don't think that's something that can be changed I don't think so. That's very like I don't know some that's it seemed very damaged You know what I'm saying? And the best thing you okay. How can I say It's worse to keep damaging keep a wound open keep the wound stabbing the wound it's worse to keep doing that Then to just let it go and let God You don't force nothing It's something about that and because I see that this is about healing the first card was temperance It's about healing but it's self healing You know it's it's for the self it so that you can have your new beginning I don't know what it is About this relationship that happened that put somebody in a non-assord and has somebody anxious or worried or fear or whatever it is With the non-assord But it's like you don't have to stay in that you don't have to be in that you don't have to suffer that Like I feel like this is about finding balance finding peace For yourself That's what this is about What is this energy here? Let me get an angel message When I tell you this earthen ground card probably came out in all the readings today And every other time I felt like it was about someone literally going in the ground Like and then it says opportunity and change So it could be really about grounding yourself in this reading It really could because it is going to be something different. It looks like What this is this sounds like the full card opportunity and change or even the will of fortune But it could be the full card energy too. I'm going to do this one right here If you liked what it are, please like share and subscribe Thank you so much for your like shares that subscribe I truly appreciate it because it is how we get the messages out in order to elevate the collective Let me go as an I'll be back with another reading later
