HOW TO READ THIS

Every block below is one card moment from the reading. The card art and name are what the reader just turned over; the two bold words are the card's core teaching meaning; the paragraph under it is exactly what she said while that card sat on the board.

01

Nine of Cups, The Magician, Justice

Nine of Cups: wishes · contentment

The Magician: willpower · manifestation

Justice: truth · accountability

We have the magician, the nine of cups, and we have justice. This magician is able to manifest something here that they feel really good about this. Like they're about to make something real or they already did. And it's justice. It's like it's not too little, not too much. And it's something that this magician is able to do. Maybe they're bringing happiness. Maybe it's not even about them. I don't know what okay. The nine of cups is someone feeling really good about themselves. It is, but the magician always manifests something real like it becomes in this world. It's not in the spiritual. It's in reality. The magician makes it real. So it's something that's being made real and it's fair. It's proper and it could be very emotional.

02

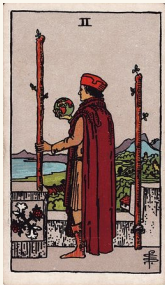

Six of Cups

Six of Cups: nostalgia · innocence

We got the six of cups here now. So we got the nine of cups and the six of cups. It could be maybe it's something about a connection. It's something very close though because it's a six of cups. So it's something deep. It's something that could go way back. It could be very familiar, very familiar like emotional bond here. But it's very positive. The magician was the first card. Actually, the magician is number one, like the zero card is the full card. Number one is the magician. And that was the first card. So this magician is able to do something and they're about to do it.

03

Two of Wands

Two of Wands: planning · decisions

We have the seven of finicles, the two of wands.

04

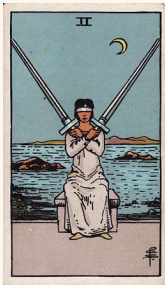

The World

The World: completion · cycle closing

We have the six of sword and then the world card. I want to say is something about going to the next level or taking a connection to the next level or taking. It's taking something to the next level, but the magician is the one that has the power. The magician has the power. So if there's if there's another party in here, like a second person, a third person, whatever, they don't have the power in this to create. But what the magician is creating, they know it's fair. They know it's just. So that's what the magician is going to do and it has to do with a past relationship, a past connection, something familiar, something where there could be memories there. Someone is going to choose to continue to invest and to have patience and to move towards the future. And this is the right way. It's closing an old chapter. It will close an old chapter. But it's not about closing something and leaving a person behind. It's not that it's not that because this magician feels too good. They feel good magician, not in a cups and justice. They feel good about what they're creating about this connection is cups. They feel good about that. And what they're giving. What is this energy? It's something about learning a lesson. And that's crazy. The magician is I'm going to say the magician is the second major icon. It's labeled one, but it's the second one, but the world card is the last major icon. So it kind of is like from like the first to the last kind of it's close. What is this energy? Like this magician is about to close the cycle once and for all and they understand, but it's not a negative thing. It's closing an old chapter. Like this magician is about to. I feel like it's something about their power. Something with their ability to manifest is about to change. Like it's about to go on another scale. It's going to be on another scale. What's this energy here? What is this energy?

Two of Swords

Two of Swords: stalemate · indecision

So we have the two of sword.

06

Five of Cups

Five of Cups: grief · loss

We have the five of cups energy.

07

Eight of Swords

Eight of Swords: restriction · fear

We have the eight of swords. Wow. What is that? That looked like somebody being trapped. We have the queen of pinnacles. Maybe this magician is helping this queen of pinnacles. Maybe they're helping somebody out. That can't do it on their own. We have the king of pen, I mean, a night of pinnacles.

Five of Wands

Five of Wands: conflict · competition

We have the five of wands energy.

09

Ten of Wands

Ten of Wands: burden · responsibility

And then we have the ten of wands. Yeah, something about like breaking something, breaking free from something, breaking free from some type of boundary, breaking free from some type of spell, breaking free from some type of curse. And I feel like this magician is the one that's doing it. The magician is the one that's doing it. I don't feel like this is a client. I feel like this is somebody a lot closer because that six of cups is there. And that nine of cups is there. This magician wants to do this. This magician is going to manifest this and it's going to be real and they're going to help somebody overcome whatever it says. It could be a client, but I'm just saying the six of cups is usually somebody is deeper than that. It's deeper than that. But this magician has the power to break. The bounds, the binds, the chains, they have the power. They do magicians, nine of cups and justice. They have the power to balance the scales to do what needs to be done. So it's also spiritual law. It's when spiritual law is activated. So and the magician can do that. The magician knows how to do that. Okay. And judge, okay.

Judgement

Judgement: reckoning · awakening

Judgment. Yes, I'm telling you, the magician knows how to do that. What am I saying right now? What I am saying is that there are some people that can release you from things that you may not be able to release yourself from. And it can be many different ways. This magician is doing it out of love. They're doing it out of love. That's why I feel like this is something deeper than someone of the magician. You may not know that well. I feel like the magician knows this person because they have the power to break this. They have the power to do it. And whoever this is does not have the power to do it. They don't. What is this energy here? Some people can bless you. Some people can break the chains. Some people can help you in a way that no one else can. Some people. And it's very, very true. It's very true. But the only people that know are the ones that have experienced it. But OK, what's this energy?

Seven of Wands

Seven of Wands: defense · courage

We have the seven of wands. Yeah, it's something about this magician defending.

12

Page of Swords: curiosity · vigilance

We have the page of swords. What is this?

13

Ace of Wands

Ace of Wands: spark · inspiration

And then we have the ace of wands. Yeah, it's like targeting something, defending it and breaking it. This magician is not playing this magician. They come in love, but they have the force. They got all the elements. And they know how to use all the elements. And it's clearly someone here that stuck in. I'm telling you they're stuck. They're stuck in a spell. And some things last a really long time. Like people just don't know. People just don't know Lord. Some people don't know. But this ain't no game.

14

The Devil

The Devil: bondage · attachment

We got the devil here. I'm telling you it's something that's holding a person down. It's holding them down and it's like this magician is their only chance. Like some people were sent to help people. You know, like really, that's a real thing, whatever kind of help. Some people were sent here to help because, like I said, whoever this is, there is nobody that could have changed whatever this outcome is for them.

15

Eight of Swords

Eight of Swords: restriction · fear

With this to a sword, five of cups, eight of sword. What's this energy? That looks terrible. We have the six of finicles here. It's something where this magician may open the doors for whoever this is. They may open the doors to this person so they can receive.

16

Three of Cups

Three of Cups: friendship · celebration

And then we have the three of cups and change something to a positive energy here.

17

The Chariot

The Chariot: willpower · drive

And we have a two of cups and a chariot and perhaps move a relationship for like, I feel a lot of things moving forward when this magician, I'm telling you the cars are coming out. The cars are really coming out. The magician was the first car. That doesn't happen all the time. I don't remember the last time the magician came out first. That does not happen all the time. It really doesn't. It's something that this magician is doing. Magician, nine of cups, justice. The justice is the scales. Scales can't look like this. They got to look like this. It got to be balanced. It got to be. The magician is doing something to make sure that happens. It's somebody for someone in the past so that they can close some type of cycle, that this person cannot close on their own. They don't almost even want to say that only you have the authority. Cause you know what? There have been people like this. I say that this goes way back. What I didn't consider is it could be past life also. It could be past life and you may not even know how far this should go back. But only you have the power to release this person because of maybe something that happened in the past. But from what I'm seeing people do earn. They can earn their their shit back. Yes. People can earn their shit back. And I feel like this magician has the power to give somebody something that they may have lost. Now, I don't know how they lost it, but they may have lost it. And this magician can see that or maybe they can see that this is something that this person has clearly earned. Y'all, y'all don't know. Oh my God. My head is hot right now. I really think that's what it is. This magician is giving something back that well, not that they took, but they're giving something back to a person that lost it. They're opening a door for someone that it was closed. This magician is doing that. Like a lot of things happen. Like, you know, everything is about a grace of God. But when a doctor is in there doing surgery and you come out of that? Yes, it was about a grace of God, but it was also the doctor's hands. It was also the doctor's hands and whoever else helped. And I'm just saying, glory be to God. But God sent messengers, God sent helpers. I'm just saying the doctor thing was just an example. But it's giving this shit right here is giving. I don't even I mean, should I pull more cards? What is this energy here? What do we need to know about this? What do we need to know? We got the four sort. So something is being laid to rest. Something here is going to be at peace. Something here is neutralized. Something here is forgiven. I would even say I would even go as far as to say that after everything. I just figured out with that. It could even be some type of energy is forgiven because the scales I balance. Look, nine of cups. It's in somebody's heart. Some people can earn it back. They do. They earn it back. There were a lot of different things, including sacrifice. People earn their shit back. They do.

King of Cups

King of Cups: emotional mastery · calm

We have the King of cups energy here. Water signs. We have the eight of thinicles here. It's something about perfect. I don't know who this person is, but it's something about perfecting something or going to the next level in their career or. You know, something about their profession.

Something they're perfecting or they do well or they're going to do well. Like, what is this energy here?

19

The High Priestess

The High Priestess: intuition · the unseen

We have the high priestess and the high priestess can see they know the truth. What is this energy?

20

The Empress

The Empress: nurturing · abundance

And we have the Empress. The high priestess and the Empress could be like a motherly figure or definitely a boss figure. But something about like, you know, the garden and the flourishing and different plants and animals and fruits and vegetables and the running stream in here. Like, it's just all abundance around whoever this is. What is this energy?

Queen of Cups

Queen of Cups: compassion · empathy

We have the queen of cups here. So the king and the queen of cups is here. The king of cups is doing something in their profession. The queen of cups is the Empress and high priestess is in the middle of both of them. So it's like it's something that's deeply understood between the king and the queen of cups. And it might not even be that they're water signs, but on a spiritual level. It's on it's on another level. It's something crazy with this. This is crazy and it's stable. I mean, what can I say? It's something that's stable. It's something that's been stabilized. That's amazing. You have the king and the queen out here and they're both in a high position. They're both in a beautiful position and they both have the high priestess. Between them, like they know the truth. They know the secret. They know they hidden. That's crazy. I mean, that's amazing. I shouldn't keep saying that's crazy. It's just like, wow, it's a lot right now. What is this energy? What is this guy? It says healing energy, Lord, healing energy and angelic protection. I'm telling you this magician, this magician can do it and they will do it. And they're going to do it not because of any other reason, other than

Justice

Justice: truth · accountability

balance and justice and energy and spirit and just knowing. I'm going to lead this one right here. I run into it. If you like the way that I read, please like, share, and subscribe.
