HOW TO READ THIS

Every block below is one card moment from the reading. The card art and name are what the reader just turned over; the two bold words are the card's core teaching meaning; the paragraph under it is exactly what she said while that card sat on the board.

01

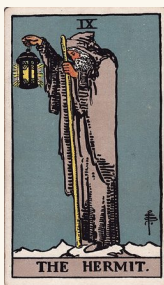

The High Priestess, The Chariot

The High Priestess: intuition · the unseen

The Chariot: willpower · drive

We have the chariot, we have the Hierophon, and we have the high priestess, wow, okay. Now I don't know if the Hierophon and the high priestess are separate people or the same person but this is three major arcana to start the reading with so we have cancer,

02

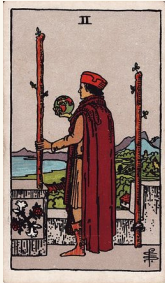

The Hermit

The Hermit: solitude · inner wisdom tourists, Sagittarius, and I would say Pisces, and we got the hermit at the bottom. It's something about destiny moving forward for, I don't know if it's a teacher, it's someone that knows the laws, the rules, they're part of something bigger than themselves. They work for a higher power, let's say. Their life is moving forward. They're balanced, they are controlled, they are disciplined, they are aligned, like they're inner and outer because the high priestess is like what you know on the inside, it's the hidden knowledge on the inside and the Hierophon knows the knowledge on the outside and the chariot moves everything forward, it aligns everything. So there's something taking place for a person that I don't know if you studied something or you're a professional at something or you're just very knowledgeable about some, I don't care what it is, it's something that other people could come to you about. What is this energy? Or this may be secrets unlocking, we have the night of swords.

Two of Wands, Five of Cups

Two of Wands: planning · decisions

Five of Cups: grief · loss

What is this? We have the two of wands, the five of cups energy,

04

King of Wands, Nine of Cups

King of Wands: vision · leadership

Nine of Cups: wishes · contentment

the king of wands, and then the nine of cups. So it's not like something that keeps somebody down because it went from the five of cups to the nine of cups but it's something about, it's a lot to go through but a person has to get through it like emotionally. It's something about saying something moving forward and just saying it, moving forward and speaking, moving forward and writing because the night of sword is about asserting their thoughts but it's something that a person knows very well, they know it very well and they're supposed to do this but I wonder why the five of cups is there. Why did the five of cups come out like that, like why

05

Seven of Cups

Seven of Cups: choices · illusion

what is this energy and then we have the seven of cups. So the seven of cups is like somebody I want to say suffering a delusion or suffering some type of confusion but a person is going to wake up from

06

The Devil

The Devil: bondage · attachment

that. I don't know what that could be. Oh, we got the devil at the bottom. It could be that somebody did not know the power that they had or someone didn't know what they knew is important or what they're supposed to put out there is important or it's something about this night of sword. This night of sword is the one actually delivering whatever this is. They're the ones actually saying it or writing it, speaking it, singing it, preaching it, something. They're the ones actually doing it. But I'm like, wow, like somebody was suffering some type of toxic delusion here with the devil at the bottom and the seven of cups clarifying the five of cups. That was holding somebody back out of the chariot's energy out of alignment. Let me get. No, no, no. What's this energy? What is this?

07

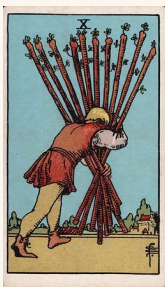

The Lovers

The Lovers: union · a choice

Chiron intuition. We have the lovers.

08

Ten of Wands

Ten of Wands: burden · responsibility

We have the ten of wands energy.

09

Temperance

Temperance: balance · patience

We have the six of pinnacles. We have the queen of pinnacles. Temperance, Sagittarius. We have the page of pinnacles and then we have the night of cup's energy. This looks like a relationship that a person has given a lot to. Lovers and the ten of wands. But then the six of pinnacles comes out and queen of pinnacles. Temperance, it shows some type of balance. But why is this ten of wands here? Because that's almost destructive. Unless this is a responsibility because it doesn't look like it ends negatively. It looks like this line is very positive other than this ten of wands. But that's like really taking a lot of pressure, a lot of fire.

10

Three of Cups

Three of Cups: friendship · celebration

And then we have the three of cup's energy. It's something that's still positive, but it's like it's very difficult with some type of partnership. I don't know if it's something intimate, something that's just business. I don't know what kind of partnership. I don't know if it's family. But it's some type of commitment. It's not easy, but it looks like it's worth it. I don't know how that ties into it, but the lovers does have to do with a relationship. It has to do with some type of choice. A person is making with this relationship. What is this energy? But it leaves somewhere positive. It is somebody's path. It's not supposed to be. Well, I'm not going to sit here and say it's not supposed to be easy, but it seems to be something they can handle. So maybe the high

11

The High Priestess

The High Priestess: intuition · the unseen

we're finding a high priestess are two separate people that are supposed to move forward together and come out of some type of illusion, some type of toxicity. I don't know who it is that's in the toxicity. It came out like a king of wands or some type of confusion. They need to come out of that and realize who they are, what they are. And that this relationship requires a lot of hard work. It's not easy, but it's positive. It's positive. And it's worth it. And it's worth celebration. And it's like just positive energy and peace is just worth it. Because the rest of this line is beautiful. Queen of pinnacles, temperance, page of pinnacles, and a night of cups. That's somebody planting seeds and pursuing their hearts desire. Like on their path, this path is not supposed to be easy. Like someone asked, I don't know who is the horror front and who is the high priestess, but both of you, whoever it is, they need to know what they are. They need to know what they are so that they can move forward properly and assertively and like, I don't know with clarity. Because this night of sword is going to say something. They're going to write something or address something. They're going to, they're going to do something. Let's say with their voice. And it's like they got to, they got to come out of the illusion. I don't know what that is. I really don't know what it is. It could be drugs. I don't know. I'm just saying, whatever it is, it's not going to help. Somebody's supposed to 12

Ten of Cups

Ten of Cups: harmony · family have the 10 of cups here, 10 of cups right there. What is this energy here? Let me get a few more here. No matter fact, let me put that down because I don't mean that. And crazy. What's this energy? We have the page of pinnacles again. Page of pinnacles is ready to plant the seeds. They're ready to do the hard work. And you start from the ground up. You don't build a house from the top down. You got to start from the ground up. And we'll actually, it starts underneath the ground right because yeah, this seven of cups and that devil energy is something that needed to be cleaned up. It's something that needed to be stopped or realized or shut down. There could also be a destructive three of cups or a destructive friend or destructive. Somebody that's like supposed to be a positive influence and they're not. That's a possibility too. That was it's preventing or it can block. It can potentially block but not in this reading. In this reading, the first three cards was 13

The Chariot

The Chariot: willpower · drive

chariot, the higher front and the high priestess. Like they're both getting in this chariot and they're moving forward. They're both getting in here and moving forward. Like I don't know, I don't know what the delusion or the confusion is but that can't go. That can't that definitely cannot go because that will destroy some shit. What is this energy here?

14

Seven of Swords, Six of Wands

Seven of Swords: deception · strategy

Six of Wands: victory · recognition

We have the seven of swords energy. Why we have the seven of swords here. We have the six of wands. It looks like somebody finds a way to win. They find a strategic way to do something or they have a different outlook on something or they have a different. It's like I feel like this is somebody that, okay, let me hold these cards up. This to me looks like someone that is bringing something new and they're successful at it. They're clever. They're doing something they're bringing something new. Like and they're doing it a different kind of way. I know how the seven of sword look but it really can also represent cleverness. It can represent strategy. It doesn't always have to be somebody stealing some shit. Somebody manipulating something. It can actually also be something genius that's really outside the box but it is somebody planting a seed here that like they are going to win. They're going to do something very different or something that hasn't been done. Yeah, seven of swords can be that too but they're going to succeed and I don't know. It could be both of them doing this together or one of them but they're going to succeed but they have to come out of their delusion, the confusion so that you can process what is this energy here. We have the emperors. What is this energy. We have the ace of cubs energy and we have the king of cubs. So look like emperors love the king of cubs, king of cubs love the emperors. I mean whoever is whoever, Taurus, Libra and water signs. We have the Ada sword. Oh king of wands is here. Yeah, they got to come there is something where the mind has to be let like something has to they got to let something go. I don't know what it is but the mind is going to be freed. The mind is going to be freed. What is this. We have the night of pinnacles and we have the Ada pinnacles until somebody perfects this whatever it is they're building until it is a profession. I mean yeah until something is a profession.

15

King of Wands

King of Wands: vision · leadership

Somebody's a pro. Somebody's skilled. It's a discipline and someone being known for this and being able to do this because I mean being able to do it at a certain level maybe that others don't. Like it really looks like it all breaks down to the fact that doors are opening because a person realizes what is toxic and what is not. It's a I want to say oh toxic in their own life because everybody has their own tables. Everybody does not have the same taboo. Some things other people can do you can't do. This energy right here is something that is toxic to a person or two people that they got to realize that's not the way. You know when you realize that it starts to shape your morale I think. And I think that's what's going on. Somebody realizes the direction they're going or the direction they must go. The direction that they have to go in order to be balanced in order to be properly on their path. And to do what they came here to do because I feel like somebody is about to change something or they're about to add something academically that didn't be it wasn't seen. I don't know how to you know people figure things out all the time. I feel like it really is going to be a big deal though. I'm just saying let me get an angel message. Like they're supposed to be working together to do this. It says take charge and action and take a step back. Oh my goodness look at this take a step back and cut the cords. Take a step back and cut the cords. That's to that stuff. What I don't know what the delusion was but true. It says honesty and communication and learning experience. So somebody already knows better. Somebody already knows better. I'm going to leave this one right here. If you liked what did I read please like share and subscribe. Thank you so much for your like shares and subscribes. I truly appreciate it because it is how we get the messages out in order to elevate the collective. I love you guys and I'll be back with another reading later. Bye.
