HOW TO READ THIS

Every block below is one card moment from the reading. The card art and name are what the reader just turned over; the two bold words are the card's core teaching meaning; the paragraph under it is exactly what she said while that card sat on the board.

01

Ten of Wands, Four of Cups, Judgement

Ten of Wands: burden · responsibility

Four of Cups: apathy · reflection

Judgement: reckoning · awakening

We have the 10 of Wands Energy, we have Judgment, and we have the 4 of Cups Energy. Now that's odd to me to have so much energy like that, 10 of Wands Judgment, and then the 4 of Cups look like somebody that don't get it or they're setting their ways or they're missing the point of what this is as being released. This is a lot that's being let go or it's time to let some type of responsibility, some type of something that I don't know how to say like some things can eat you up. I don't know what it is, but the 10 of Wands and then Judgment is time for somebody to let this go or it's not your problem no more. That's really what it's given, it's not your problem, it's not your fight, it's not like it's to the point where it's destructive. And somebody is missing, I gotta get something with this 4 of Cups. What is this 4 of Cups doing here? Almost like somebody don't care, somebody don't get it, somebody's unaware of what is being released. And what and what is coming in because Judgment is also about, well it's either imprisonment or freedom, depending on if you've been doing what you're supposed to do. But the 10 of Wands energy and then Judgment shit, it look like somebody already been through it.

02

The Devil

The Devil: bondage · attachment

What is this 4 of Cups? I gotta get something with this 4 of Cups. We got to devil. It's almost like somebody is not even aware of the strings or they're not aware of what has been controlling them. They're not aware of what put them in all that fire and what put them in that man, somebody's got, I don't know. Let me get something with this 4 of Cups again because we got to devil here.

03

Three of Cups

Three of Cups: friendship · celebration

What is this energy? And then we got the full and then it's the 3 of Cups. It's something that it is being released but I don't think a person understands how serious. Like maybe there's a little bit of understanding but I don't think somebody understands like 100. What is being let go and why that's necessary. And we can't be doing that. We gotta know. We gotta know that this gotta go and there's a big reason behind it because it's exhausting. It's harmful. It's burdensome. It's just destructive. I don't know.

04

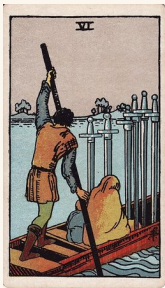

Five of Cups

Five of Cups: grief · loss

We got the 5 of Cups. It's like putting all your energy into something for nothing, for nothing. You know, there are people that, and this can be done in different ways. They put their energy into things that you don't even need. You know, people that don't be minding their business sometimes. And I could be not minding my business right now too. But it's something where I just feel like this camp, you can't give this no more energy. It's something where it truly has to be like you gotta wake up. It's been turbulent. It's been hell. Somebody probably has dealt with the hell. But someone really needs to be aware of the possibilities. There's something greater. There's something better. It's almost like the devil did fool somebody. It's almost like the devil did fool somebody into thinking that you gotta be all of that. You gotta be too much. You gotta burn your whole energy and life up to get somewhere. And it's like, no, that's not it. The four cups is here to truly let somebody know there's another way. You know, sometimes we don't see the possibility. Sometimes we do get set in our way. Sometimes we get comfortable. Inhale. Thinking that that's what we gotta do. Or that's what we gotta be. Or that's what we gotta create. Or that's what we gotta be with. This is what we gotta be to be with. It's so much I'm telling you. It's something that's like burning a person up. And judgment is there to release somebody like, damn, there look like somebody was going through hell before they even get heaven. And like a person is so conditioned in that 10 of wands. They're so conditioned to be in that 10 of wands that they don't know. There's more or there's more options or things that you don't have to be in the 10 of wands. Like that's a lot. That's like borderline burned out. What's this energy? We got the five of cups out here.

Six of Swords

Six of Swords: transition · moving on

We got the six of swords.

06

Seven of Swords, Seven of Wands

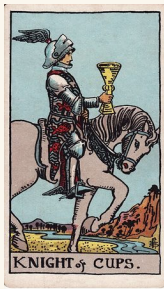

Seven of Swords: deception · strategy

Seven of Wands: defense · courage

We have the seven of swords. The seven of wands, 77. And then we got the higher font. The higher font, some type of title, some type of official title, a trusted title. But it's almost like a person could be mourning the past. They're mourning the past. And they're moving forward in the way that they got to. Maybe it's unconventional. A something where they like they got to be strong. They got to be brave. And they got a face whatever they got a face. Like there's no running from it. Like I feel like somebody was in the 10 of wands because they were running from who they truly were. That's truly what I'm getting from this reading right now. Somebody was in the 10 of wands because they were running from the higher font's energy, the higher font, who you're meant to be, that authority. It could be a spiritual authority. But it is something where a person has status and they are connected with other people that understand or they know the laws, they know the rules, they have the keys. And it just looked like it's time for somebody has got uncomfortable in the 10 of wands. It's like, no, you're not supposed to. That's a lot. That's a lot. That's like being, you know, like if you didn't have the necessities and you're just out in the wild, you know, you got to search for your food. You got to search for water. You got to be able to lay down. You got to do you got to all these like that would be crazy living. I think like alone with nobody. That's a lot. So I think this is about a person stepping into the higher font energy and just, you know, some people can't break the rules. For some people they came here and the rules is what protect you. And I'm not talking about laws like, you know, I'm talking about spiritual laws. Yes. But like that there is something that was created. I don't know. It just looked like somebody has to just step into who they are. It's something that was created for you. There's a whole system that was created for you. And not just you, many other people. But there was a whole system that was created for the purpose of you having that title. And without that title, it is going to be hell. It's going to stay the 10 of ones. But luckily, the universe makes decisions. And it's saying that it's time to come about that 10 of ones. It's time to just realize you're the horrified. You don't want to be out here in a 10 of ones using all your damn force every day using all your power. Like you don't want to be doing all that. Like, I don't know how to say, like, okay, let's say you're a, let's say you was a dancer. And like, you know, you're a great dancer and you could really do this. And you know, maybe you're, you could be a great teacher. You could do something, but instead, and I'm not trying to downplay nobody or nothing like that. But instead, you know, you're doing, you know, little things, little things that maybe give you little money. And you're not doing so good, you know, supporting yourself, whatever, right? But you don't know that if you became part of this organization, or if you became part of this dance troupe, or if you became part of, it's like, you could do a lot better. Like, to become like officially titled, I don't know, I hope I'm saying it right. I hope people can get the just of what I'm saying. It doesn't have to be the 10 of ones for someone. It doesn't have to be killing them, break back breaking. It doesn't have to be like that. You could be part of a whole system where the whole thing is supported for some people that is their path, for some people. What is this energy? It's like they're meant to be part of that knowledge, that teaching, that education, that organization, whatever it is. There are just some people just meant to be part of that. And add to it, perhaps we have the night of cups energy. Like, there are systems in this world, many systems, like they're, you could call them jobs. You could call them many things. There's many different things that a person, there's a lot of people doing things on their own and that's good. A lot of people doing freelance stuff, that's really, really good. But for some people, because not everybody's built for that, for some people, it's like being part of the organization is where it's at. Because it just fits you instead of doing something on your own and it just feels like a fucking punishment. You know, you're going to have pros and cons with anything that you do. But if somebody has already tried to shit on their own, I'm pretty sure you're going to see the difference. Doing it part of something, or organized system, or like I'm pretty sure you're going to know what it feels like. You're going to see the difference. I'm pretty sure. What is this energy here? What is going on? We have the six of pinnacles.

Knight of Cups, The High Priestess

Knight of Cups: romance · the offer

The High Priestess: intuition · the unseen

We have the full card. Yes. The Knight of Cups, the six of pinnacles and the full card. That's what I'm talking about. The high priestess. It's like, let's go. We didn't get no pinnacles in this reading. Not one. Not one until the six of pinnacles came out. That's what you're going to get. You're going to get what you deserve. Six of pinnacles. Whatever you put in is what you're going to get out.

08

Nine of Wands

Nine of Wands: resilience · persistence

We have the nine of Wands energy. Okay. It toned it down a little bit. Nine of Wands is not the 10. Okay. We have the Hangman energy. We have the seven of pinnacles energy. Now it could be something long term because in the same row, we have the six of pinnacles and the seven of pinnacles. It could be time invested. It could be something where maybe something needs to be realized or it isn't going to give you time to realize or this is going to be the tools that you needed to realize.

09

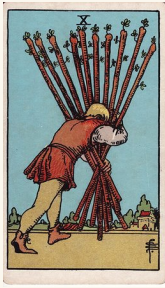

The Sun

The Sun: clarity · joy

It's going to be something that you realize and you're going to know and then we got the sun card, the sun, the sun, the true identity, the true self, the shining, shining that true light, shining your true self, shining whatever it is.

10

Ten of Wands

Ten of Wands: burden · responsibility

But doing this shit as the 10 of Wands, that's not sustainable. That's like driving a car at full speed, you know, and thinking the gas ain't going to never run out. I mean, hopefully you don't crash or nothing like that before, but still like it's not sustainable to be up on max like that. But I think once somebody steps into whatever this title is, I feel like there's going to be some balance there and somebody's going to get the realization they're going to see and they're going to realize their power. And the fact that they've been exhausting, somebody has been exhausting themselves. I see it. They have been exhausting themselves to do whatever they've been trying to do and they don't have to do it like that. Like I said, there's pros and cons. If the pros of being on your own outweigh the cons, then yeah, go with the pros. But if the pros are better with being a part of the organization, like just go with the pro, go with the pros, go with the pros. Like what is it? What's worth it and what's not worth it? And that's to each its own. We have the queen of pinnacles. We have the ten of pinnacles. Okay. So I'm just saying, who wants to be this? That's what I'm talking about right there. For reading, it doesn't have many pinnacles. This is what I want. You got the queen of pinnacles, ten of pinnacles and a star. I mean, let's go. That's what I'm saying. We're trying to get here. We're trying to have something left behind, something, you know, ancestry, you know, inheritances, business, wealth, you know, something leaving, leaving something to the earth, leaving something behind in the earth. I don't know. But doing it on a 10 a.m. won't work. You won't burn up everything. You won't use the resource, burn up the resource. It's never going to be something that is. How can I say ten of pinnacles is like abundance overflowing. It's abundance overflowing. It's like never having to worry about something like if you had, you know, orange trees everywhere. Tree orchard, orange trees, orange orchard, peaches, whatever. You shouldn't have to worry about food as long as it's overflowing. Something that will not stop. It can't stop its abundance of I think a person could do a lot better in the system. I have the tennis court. Yeah. It's something here that need to be let go. Somebody here need to realize it's okay to be like not the same working.

11

Justice

Justice: truth · accountability

What is this energy? It's okay to put a rest, put the rest and we got justice. See, this is what somebody's supposed to do right here. I'm so sorry. It is something that is ending. You know, it was an idea. It was, you know, and it's okay. Some ideas is just not for us. It's okay. It is okay. We try and you just go to the next thing or you just keep trying, trying, trying. But sometimes it's just not the thing. It's okay. It is okay. That's justice right there. It's the balance of the scales right there. Somebody got to let, but I mean to be letting go of exhaustion, that's a good thing.

12

The Devil

The Devil: bondage · attachment

What is this energy here? We have the devil. So it's a little bit deeper than just being exhausted. It really is just taboo for someone and everybody has their own taboo. Everything is not going to be the same for everybody. Everything is not for everybody. But if it's something that's not for you, it will not work for you. You will have to work for it. And that's just not going to work. That's not how I supposed to be. You know, I'm not even going to say nothing. What's this energy here? What's this energy? We have the sun car. See, this where we're supposed to be. That's the second time we see the sun.

13

The Star

The Star: hope · renewal

And the star. Yeah, we got to go beyond it. I'm just saying I'm just being honest. We can do as much as we can, but sometimes being a part of the organized system is where you want to be. We have blessings and abundance. And it says earth and ground. I'm going to leave this one right here. If you liked what it every please like share and subscribe. Thank you so much for your like shares and subscribe. I truly appreciate it because it is how we get the messages out in order to elevate the collective. I love you guys. And I'll be back with another reading later.
