HOW TO READ THIS

Every block below is one card moment from the reading. The card art and name are what the reader just turned over; the two bold words are the card's core teaching meaning; the paragraph under it is exactly what she said while that card sat on the board.

01

The Moon, The World

The Moon: hidden influence · illusion

The World: completion · cycle closing

We have the moon card out first, Pisces, we have the world card, what is this energy?

02

Five of Wands

Five of Wands: conflict · competition

We have the five of wands, damn, I mean it looks like, why is it look like a hidden fight? It's a closing of a hidden fight, but it looks very much hidden. And the moon card being the first card means it's something in the background that I don't know if you can't see it or other people can't see it, but like there's a conclusion happening right now, a hidden conclusion. It's something unconscious a person is doing, that they're about to stop. It's unconscious, it's almost like, I believe that we can want change, but I also believe that you have to work for it. And I feel like it's something that could be unconscious that's going on, that maybe somebody has worked for it and somebody has fought for it.

And now it can finally in, like even things in the psyche, things that you have to work out of your psyche. I feel like it's something along the lines with that. What is this five of wands, what is this five of wands, hmm, I'm almost thinking I should clarify the moon card. Something, my goodness, none of no, I don't feel right, I just got to keep going. What's this energy?

The Empress

The Empress: nurturing · abundance

We have the Empress.

04

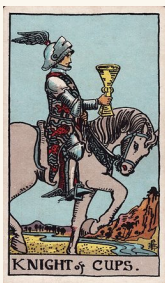

King of Wands

King of Wands: vision · leadership

We have the King of Wands energy. So Taurus, Libra, but there's a fire sign looking at this Empress. There's a fire sign looking at the Empress. It's something, oh my god, that's about to close out. It's like nobody has control over this. What is this energy?

05

Knight of Cups

Knight of Cups: romance · the offer

We have the Knight of Cups.

06

Two of Swords

Two of Swords: stalemate · indecision

We have the Two of Swords.

07

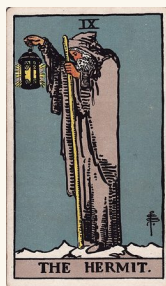

Five of Pentacles

Five of Pentacles: hardship · isolation

Damn, and then we got the Five of Pentacles. I thought it was going to end a lot better than that. But it looks like the damage is already done. That's the thing, like somebody is changing something unconscious is changing. Somebody's being lifted out of something that had no control over. But like the damage is already done. It's like now somebody's ready to do this and ready to do that. And now it's time to pay for the damage. So the Empress is probably like, damn, like you get all the way here. And now you, your ass got to pay for some shit. Or it's like, I hope I'm making sense to somebody. Like now you got to be punished. It's like you finally get the less or somebody. Whoever this, I think it's the fire sign because the moon is right above them. They get the lesson. But they still got to pay. So I almost feel like somebody made it to redemption. But you still got to pay. So it's not like, oh my god, there are certain things I don't even want to say. I'm just going to leave it at that. They got to pay for what they did. Even though they understand and many people don't even get to that level, they stay at that place where they don't even understand and, you know, fuck whatever they were, how can I say, fighting? They'll be like, you know, they don't care about that shit. This is somebody that now they get it. Now it's time for them to be released. Now it's time for them. They understand. They get the lesson. It's almost something like a person maybe even ready to open their heart now. Something is like so ready, but it's like all the damage somebody did when they were unconscious or in their animal spirit. That's about to hit. And that's the part that's like damn. But this person still made it though. And that's what I'm saying. That's the good part. Somebody's, I think this Empress, they're witnessing this. They're witnessing and they know and that's very important. That's very, very important. They're witnessing the fact that this King of Wands has been through the change and they see the change and they, it's like they see it and they feel it and everything. But they still got to pay. That's the part like, can nobody save the King of Wands from that? Can nobody save them? What's this energy here? We have the King of Pinnacles Earth sign energy here.

08

The Hermit

The Hermit: solitude · inner wisdom

We have the hermit. So somebody looking at some money. They looking at like a King of Pinnacles. Somebody got a lot of money. They're looking at somebody or investigating.

09

Strength

Strength: inner strength · controlled force

We have the strength card there. What is this?

10

The High Priestess

The High Priestess: intuition · the unseen

We got the high priestess. There's a lot of secrets there. We have the three of Pinnacles. The full card. And then the nine of Pinnacles here. Somebody's looking into the money aspect of a person. They are. The hermit is facing this King of Pinnacles. Strength card and high priestess sound like somebody trying to break into a safe. That's what it sounds like to me. I don't know why. But it sounds like somebody trying to break into a safe or whatever that means to you. They're trying to break in. It's something here about a new journey, a new possibility, a new venture. A new way to do something. To I think it's about the redemption or redeeming because it ends over here in the nine of Pinnacles, the full and then the nine of Pinnacles. Well, actually the three of Pinnacles, the full and then the nine of Pinnacles. That shows me it was some type of new venture and it increased. It got to a new level. It's the full card and then the nine of Pinnacles. So the King of Pinnacles did well. Not a hermit. This Virgo energy is something where they're shining light on this person. They're shining light or they're being or this person is being investigated and the Empress is like damn just when they understand just when they get it. But at least this person understands that's for your soul. That is so crazy.

11

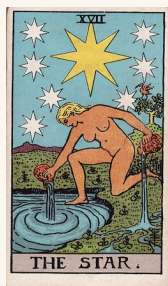

The Empress

The Empress: nurturing · abundance

12

The Star

The Star: hope · renewal

We have the star. Aquarius energy here. Yeah. I didn't even know the star was at the bottom and I'm talking about that's for your soul. Somebody is different. Somebody is chosen for something but it doesn't mean that you don't have to go through how can I say the trials and tribulations and learning this and understanding that and going through shit you don't have no control over you know closings of the cycles. You don't know if I have control over that but when it hits it hits and then you wake up and you just realize damn

13

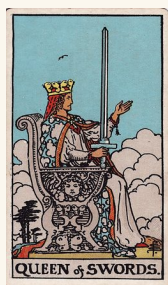

King of Wands

King of Wands: vision · leadership

that's how this King of Wands is. I don't even want to say that's how this this this Empress is because they're in two different planes of existence right now. Oh my goodness. Am I going to be able to reach this okay? Yeah. Star card is still there. Okay. Let me get something here with this. What is this?

14

Queen of Swords

Queen of Swords: independence · clarity

We have the Queen of Swords

15

Nine of Swords

Nine of Swords: anxiety · worry and then the Nine of Swords. So Queen of Swords could be very worried about something or some like air sign or it could be just about some type of information coming out or some type of truth. Like somebody could be panicking right now and they're coming out like a Queen of Swords.

16

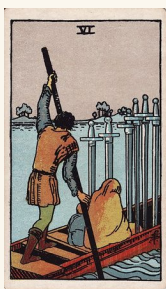

The Chariot

The Chariot: willpower · drive

We got the chariot cancer.

17

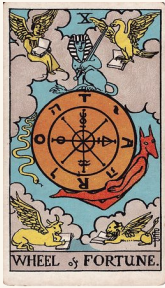

Six of Swords

Six of Swords: transition · moving on

And then we have the six of Swords energy. It's like I feel like this Queen of Swords is worried if they're going to be able to gain control over something like I'm seeing a chariot going like this. So I'm like they're worried if they're going to be able to gain control of something and I think yes because the six of Swords was right after the chariot it went Queen of Swords, Nine of Swords, right? That's somebody like Queen of Swords is worried she's an anonymous sword but then chariot and the six of Swords so she's able to gain control over something. It's almost like like if oh shit I just hurt my damn eye.

18

Wheel of Fortune

Wheel of Fortune: cycles · turning point

It's almost like if somebody yeah we're like behind the wheel and they're worried are they going to be able to get through something what's this energy here?

19

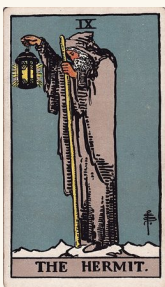

Judgement

Judgement: reckoning · awakening

We have judgment. Like this is so serious oh my god I feel like it's somebody driving through like driving through fire. Like there's fire on both sides and it's like you got to get to the other side of something before that shit comes in and then you're really driving through the fire. Like this shit sounds so serious the way it's just coming out and I didn't poke myself in the eye and shit like for real in the left eye. Okay I'm just saying my right hand I'm just saying that's just sound real weird and then it's all these Swords Queen of Sora came out they worry they're going to be able to I think somebody going to make it through but by the damn skin of the teeth right that's pretty much what it looked like even with this Virgo.

20

The Hermit

The Hermit: solitude · inner wisdom

I mean I'm not not Virgo even with this Hermit

21

King of Pentacles

King of Pentacles: success · stability

22

Seven of Wands

Seven of Wands: defense · courage

Lord we got the seven of Wands energy we got the eight of Cups energy so somebody's fighting they're fighting to walk away or they're fighting to grow up they're fighting to go further they're fighting to connect like it's man when I tell you this is an emergency this should sound like an emergency you know okay how can I say the soul is something that evolves and it changes with time right because we're bound by time and shit like that right so I feel like this is a special it's I don't want to say it's a special case but it's special because this in my eyes I notice my sound weird this is a person that is going to learn their lesson in this life instead of leaving this life and having to learn in your next life because sometimes that has to happen because people have been through hell and back so sometimes you need that refresh you need to go back to the water and come back you know what I'm saying I feel like this is a special case because this person just made it and it looked like this person is about to be taken out in the fire for real for real like I'll be in this area it's the way this shit look and it really looked like the queen of

23

The Empress

The Empress: nurturing · abundance

Sora or the Empress is trying to control the the chariot because that shit might be a lot and it's judgment but I feel like this person is going to make it through because they've learned the lesson

they have come out of some type of unconscious thing they were battling or fighting with they've learned the lesson so it's crazy but when people wake up that's when shit hits like if you break somebody heart and you think you're going to protect your heart it's going to be just when you fall in love with somebody that you or shit's going to get broke it just works like that and you can't run from that that's why people don't even like getting in relationship because they already know what's going to happen they already know what type of person they are they know what they you know they already know they didn't gave up on love shit like that this person that made it they made it but they still got to pay that's part of it it's not it's not you know something that's abnormal it's part of it you got to be asleep and you got to wake up you got to and you got to pay for whatever you know good bad karma whatever it be like that but I feel like this is somebody for real that's waking up this is truly someone that has like made it I don't know how old somebody is but it's a cycle that's truly closing and the Empress is a witness

what is this energy like I feel like this Empress is fighting for this King of Wands we have the three of pinnacles here what is this we have the two of pinnacles so they're trying to balance some type of business oh when we got the nine of pinnacles and then it's in a pinnacles like they made it I'm telling you they made it just like this much though but the per I'm I'm saying they made it but don't forget whoever whatever they did they still got to pay for that they still got to pay for that and that's the crazy part about life like you do shit that you may not even mean to do maybe in the past or maybe a person doesn't have the control or whatever the case but when you get the awareness you got to pay for that when you when it's time for you to learn or if it's ever been a situation where let's say you try to tell your kids something they ain't understanding today grew up in they had kids is something like that it come right back around and then people understand when it comes full circle but it's like this is they made it I feel like they made it I'm gonna leave it like that I'm not gonna go into all the extras I feel like some people change and then they wake up and then it's like oh my god yeah it says trust the universe and it says opportunity and change I'm just saying that shit is crazy sometimes we I think we have control to a certain extent but I think when a change is meant to happen that is something divine but I'm gonna leave it right here if you like the way that I read please like share and subscribe thank you so much for your likes shares and subscribes I truly appreciate it because it is how we get the messages out in order to elevate the collective I love you guys number back with another reading later.
