HOW TO READ THIS

Every block below is one card moment from the reading. The card art and name are what the reader just turned over; the two bold words are the card's core teaching meaning; the paragraph under it is exactly what she said while that card sat on the board.

01

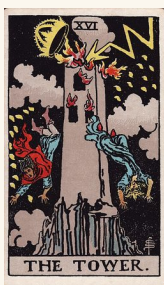

Two of Swords, Six of Wands

Two of Swords: stalemate · indecision

Six of Wands: victory · recognition

We have the two of swords, we have the six of wands, and then we have the full card. I got to get something with this two of swords, like either the something about the two of swords, something maybe pending or there may be some type of choice, but it's all leading to some type of new beginning. What is this energy?

02

The Tower

The Tower: sudden upheaval · collapse

We have the tower. So something just crumbles out of nowhere, like someone can't be on the fence, someone has to make a choice or they have to move forward into this new energy. Like something's going to happen where it's going to force somebody.

03

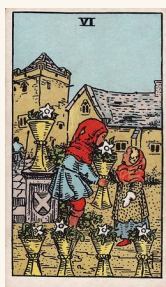

Four of Wands

Four of Wands: celebration · home

I want to say to succeed, I don't know if that's, yeah, the four of wands, that's achieving a goal right there. Like I feel like somebody was like standing still because the two of swords is kind of like when you don't know something, like when you're confused, like if there was a fork in the road and no directions and you're like damn, I got to make a choice, I don't know which way, maybe somebody comes along and says something, but in this case, let's say if it was two roads, the tower is like one road completely just falling away. That's what I'm saying. Like as if whatever was a choice, now it's not a choice, now you see because this tower just crumbled something or it just exposed something or it just brought something to light or it just broke something. Okay, what is this energy?

04

Five of Cups, Six of Cups

Five of Cups: grief · loss

Six of Cups: nostalgia · innocence

We have the five of cups. We have the night of cups, the six of cups. We have the ace of pinnacles

05

Four of Cups

Four of Cups: apathy · reflection and then we have the four of cups energy. Now the first thing I'm looking at is this ace of pinnacles and then four cups as if somebody doesn't want, somebody doesn't want whatever is being offered. They don't want some type of new beginning. They don't want some type of like to be in possession of something or they don't want to go on this new journey. Like somebody is not interested. Whoa, wait a minute. What is this five of cups? Like I see someone being sad and making a move towards who they feel is like a deep connection or they want to reconnect or it's like they're making a move like in this energy, in this grief. Someone is making a move in their grief and whoever they're offering something to, like I don't know if it's some type of new beginning, whoever they're offering that person is rejecting. That's what I see. I don't know who's who. I'm just reading the energy that I see. The first line, it looked like there's a choice that is not going to be a choice no more. Somebody is going to succeed. Somebody's going to have this new beginning period. Like if somebody was worried, let's say it like this, if you were worried, if something was going to be a problem, something's going to be blocking, something you're not going to know this. This is going to be uncertain. If you was worried about that, I promise you something's going to be taken out. Like let's say if you had, you know, you had two houses and you're like, oh, you know, I don't want I don't know which one to live. I don't know. Like I just, and then one house falls apart. And it's like, yes, we go on over there. It's like that. But then this second line is talking about somebody that's in sadness and they're making a move to somebody that they feel is close to them, but they're going to get rejected. I don't know who that is. Oh my goodness. I was clear finding five of cups. Okay. What is this energy? Oh, wait a minute. This doesn't flip. Hold up.

The World

The World: completion · cycle closing

What's this? We got the world card here. Oh my goodness. It's something really that's about to close out. It's, somebody is not going to be happy. It's not the person in the first line. The person in the first line is going into a new life, a new story, a new level and everything. The person in the second line looks like they are closing or something closed for them and they're going to be rejected. I don't know what happens to them. I don't know what's going on with them, but they're going to think somebody, I don't know, is going to give them a second chance or it could be an X or something like that. I don't know. Whatever they're going through, they're going to be, they're going to have to go somewhere else with that. I'm so sorry. That's what it looked like. I really don't, what's this energy here? The four cups is somebody that's good, like they're rejecting something, they're declining something, they're closed off emotionally. And before that was the ace of pinnacles and that was the first thing I saw them like damn, like it don't even matter how that person feel. They're going to get rejected. It's kind of like if something happened in your life and you think you can just go back to your ex because you know y'all were close. I don't think so not in this situation. Should the X might be the one that's about to have a new life, the X might be the one that, this tower happened for a reason type of shit and you're going to go back it's not going to work like that. It seems to be very comic, it seems to be your success somehow is attached to something closing out for them, something ending for them, something where they have to graduate, they have to learn their lesson. And it has nothing to do with. I mean, not it does have nothing to do with, but it's like you have no, I feel like you have no contact with what's going on with them. It's not a physically connected thing. It may be spiritually connected in some kind of way. But it's not a physical connected thing. And this person wants to come back in and they want to start something physical, ace of pinnacles. And it's like, I just don't think that's going to work.

07

The Magician

The Magician: willpower · manifestation

We have the magician here. We have the three of ones. Yeah, we're going to have to find out who

08

The Moon

The Moon: hidden influence · illusion that magician is. We have the moon. I don't like how all this sounds so far after talking about

09

King of Swords

King of Swords: authority · truth

those other lines. We have the king of sword here. So an air sign. We have the harafot here.

10

The Devil

The Devil: bondage · attachment

We have the devil. And then we have the nine of pinnacles, the nine. So they're trying to plant the ace of pinnacles. And that's being rejected. How are you going to get to this nine? They're going to force it because it's the magician. So they're going to minute, it just really looks to me like they're going to manipulate some energy because even the moon is here. And the moon is about energy that's like behind the scene, you know, the background, but still things be going on. Or, you know, things you just can't see with your eyes. But then king of sword harafont the devil. Like it's something here about a title or somebody abused their title. No, I don't, whatever is going on with them, I am so sorry to say this, but I don't think anybody's going to feel sorry for them. I don't think anybody's going to bite the bait. I don't think that anybody is going to care. Like I really don't, I really don't, because it does, it doesn't seem to matter to whoever

Nine of Wands

Nine of Wands: resilience · persistence is rejecting it. They're rejecting it. I even got the nine of wands right here. The nine of wands is usually when you have your walls up, your energy up. Like somebody cannot cross your boundary.

12

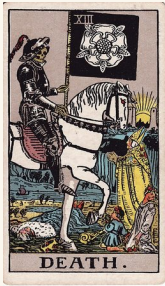

The Tower

The Tower: sudden upheaval · collapse

What is this? What is going on here? We have the night of swords. Damn, we have the tower. It really might surprise somebody how this person reaches out. Like they may come out of nowhere with some shit. What is this energy? Or whatever was up in the air. So it may not, you know what, that to a sword could represent something that was pending for the both of you. Like for one person, it was an ascension for another person. It was a closing of a cycle. And like it's a tower. So it's going to happen. And it's going to shatter everything, but everybody's not going the same way. And whoever this is where the cycle closes right there, they're going to try to come back around with this. It's a pinnacles. It's not going. It's not going to happen like that. It's not going to happen like that. It's, I don't know. It's, it's a weird energy. It's a weird energy for me. It is. What is this? So the night of sword and then the tower, somebody could get some crazy ass news like for real. And then we have the 10 of pinnacles, something with family, something with a business or organization. Somebody could be the head of something like really. It's going to be some news here. It's going to be some news. Night of sword and a tower. We have the non-assort. This is what I'm talking about. Like whatever this tower is, it could

Death

Death: endings · transformation

even be a death. And I think there's somebody that's not going to care. Like I am so sorry. I just keep saying that because you know, like it just sounds bad. But y'all know some people don't give a fuck when certain people, you know, like I'm just being honest. You know what I mean? Like it is because it's right here. Look at them. They don't care. They don't want it. They don't care. They don't want to even hear it. But the information is going to be there. And it's going to hit everybody. But it doesn't mean that there's going to be some type of, I don't know, some type of reunion or some shit. It does not mean that. It doesn't mean that. Oh, wait a minute. So the person that is declining it, it looks like it's a horrifying. And it's the six o' ones. The six o' ones was the second card in this reading. It went from the six o' ones to the full card. The new beginning, the new journey, the new energy. So they, it is connected. It's like the person that's going up is declining. The person that the cycle is closing for them. So their cycle is closing. And it's a new cycle beginning for whoever this is at the beginning. And they are rejecting it. What is this energy? The four pinnacles. The king of pinnacles. Look like a king of pinnacles. Very stable here in a business, perhaps. And something in life, something stable, something is definitely stable.

14

Three of Wands, Six of Swords

Three of Wands: expansion · foresight

Six of Swords: transition · moving on

What is this energy? We have the three of wands energy. We have the six of swords. Yeah, it looked like open waters to me. That's the first thing I saw looking at these two cards. It's just like open waters. And these are two separate cards. Open waters though. What is this energy? We have the four sword, this mental piece, mental stability out here. We got the star. Like somebody knows what they're doing. No, they know who they are. They know what they're here to do their purpose. Okay. And then we already see, this is why somebody's not taking that offer because it's full of shit. It's all this smoking mirrors and shit with it. So I'm telling you, if it's your intuition, your shit is on the money. Just because somebody's having a shitty day, it doesn't mean they can come in your life. I'm just saying, that's how it be some time. And I'm so sorry, but that's how it be some time. Like, don't use that shit as an excuse to try to rekindle some shit because the tower happened.

15

Ten of Cups

Ten of Cups: harmony · family

That's not going to work. We got the 10 of cups here. So somebody's already good. Okay. Somebody already got the connection. They already got the divine love. They already got the emotional fulfillment out here. Yeah. And I just said something about the high

16

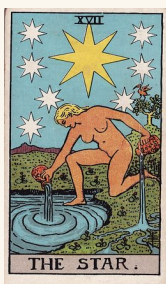

The High Priestess

The High Priestess: intuition · the unseen priestess. Yeah, the high priestess knows they know the deeper meaning of things, they know what's hidden. They know they're hidden meaning behind things. They guard the gate. They know the shit, you know, you know, you may not want to say. What's this energy? We have the 10 of ones. What is this 10 of ones? The page of pinnacles. Damn, they look like somebody really trying hard to plan a new seed. I mean, it looks like they're really putting their back into this shit. Okay. They're doing everything they can. I don't know who this is. This is not the star. This is somebody else. This is somebody that's going to have to do some shit on their own. That's what they look like. I mean, really, just looking at the cards, they look like they're going to have to do something on their own. They're not going to be able to turn to whoever this is as going into their new beginning. They're not going to be able to do that. Yeah. This one right here where the cycle is closing. Yeah, it's over for them. Yeah, it's the king of sword. Look at that. The king of sword. Uh-huh. It is something pending for them. It is. It is. It is. It is something that's about to happen. And I clarified the tool sword. The tool sword was the first card in this reading. And the tower came out. So when that shit happened, it's only going to go one way. They're not going to be able to you turn in all that shit. That shit's over. What's this energy here? We have trusted universe. You get what I'm saying? The tower going to happen. This is composure. Like you already know what's up. You already know what's going on. But I'm going to leave it right here. If you liked what it is, like share and subscribe. Thank you so much for your lectures and subscribe. I truly appreciate it because it is how we get the messages out in order to elevate the collective. I love you guys. And I'll be back with another reading later. Bye.

17

The Star

The Star: hope · renewal
