HOW TO READ THIS

Every block below is one card moment from the reading. The card art and name are what the reader just turned over; the two bold words are the card's core teaching meaning; the paragraph under it is exactly what she said while that card sat on the board.

01

King of Swords

King of Swords: authority · truth

We have the King of Swords,

02

Two of Pentacles

Two of Pentacles: balance · juggling

the two of Pentacles,

03

Two of Swords

Two of Swords: stalemate · indecision

and then the two of sword. So the King of sword, and then 22, two of Pentacles, two of sword. It's like, I feel like this King of sword is trying to grow something, and they can't. They're trying to work on something, they're trying to balance something. Could even be trying to organize something, and they just really can't get it together, or something's not processing. What is this energy?

04

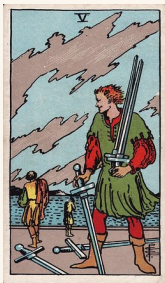

Five of Wands

Five of Wands: conflict · competition

We have the Five of Wands energy. It's like that it's something about a fight, or okay, what is this?

05

Five of Swords

Five of Swords: conflict · defeat

Yeah, Five of Swords. So Five of Wands and a Five of Swords is a clear sign of a fight or argument. I mean, I don't know who's right or wrong, but it's just a disagreement that it's not cleared up. It's like tension, it's so much tension, and I feel like this King of sword is trying to do something. They're trying to work on something,

06

The World

The World: completion · cycle closing

or build something, we have the World card, something about closing out this cycle,

07

King of Cups

King of Cups: emotional mastery · calm

and then something we have the King of Cups,

08

Eight of Swords

Eight of Swords: restriction · fear

and then we have the Eight of Swords. Like somebody's emotions are not changing. This King of Swords, I mean, this King of Cups emotion is not changing, or somebody feels stuck. Like they can't connect to somebody, they can't love somebody, they can't do something like their block. I feel like this King of Sword wants to turn into the King of Cups. I feel like they wanna change like their ways or their attitude, or their bitterness, or I mean, I'm not trying to say all King of Swords, I better, but you know, the King of Sword come out a certain kind of way. Like, I'm not just, okay, some people have met people like what I'm about to describe. There are certain people that like, they just say the truth, and it's not about the emotional thing, it's not about hurting no feelings. Like I just, oh my God, I only wanna talk about it, cause it's like, I don't know, I was scrolling, and I saw something about like Wipeswap and like, it was like one couple, it was something about them basically fat shaming. And it was like, it's not okay at all, but it's like they didn't see the emotional aspect behind it. They didn't see why somebody will be upset. Like the way that they were talking about it, I'm not even making an excuse for them, but I'm just trying to give you the energy. Like some people really don't connect the feelings to the truth. Like some people just say certain things. Even if it's just a physical truth thing, it's like King of Sword can be a little cold. I'm just saying all this to give that example so that people understand like, if you've ever met somebody like that, they truly do not feel nothing from certain things. I don't know, I don't know how to do it, but okay. And then we have the King of Cups. I feel like they don't want to be like that. They want to be more like the King of Cups. They want to care, but I just don't feel like, I don't feel like it's there. I feel like somebody, the eight of sword is like, it's just like somebody stuck in an old perspective. Like I'm so scared to say that somebody cannot change their ways because everybody can change. Anybody can change, but it's not up to anybody else. You know, when somebody has to change, but it's just like, oh, why do they feel, what is this energy? I'm just trying to figure out, I think in this reading, this more so is about a fight, a argument, okay. And I really do think that this King of Sword, I just gave that other example to just describe how a King of Swords can come off sometimes. But I think that they want to be a King of Cups. What's this, Eight of Sword? We have the Eight of Sword again. I'm so tired. I can't, I really can't.

09

Ace of Pentacles

Ace of Pentacles: opportunity · prosperity

At the bottom is the Ace of Pentacles here. It's like something I feel like they want to obtain. It's something they want to get, but they, I don't know like they can't get it being this way. I see that they want to work on it, but like, I don't know, it just makes me feel like they don't know how. They don't know how, they don't know what to do to change something. This is, I mean, I can't, I don't know. I'm just saying like, I don't know if this person is going to change their mind or change their ways or like, I don't know, but they feel like they're stuck. And then I clarified that energy and the same card came out. Like somebody feels like they cannot break free. They cannot, they cannot get away from an old mindset. Or maybe this King of Cups is somebody completely different. Maybe the King of, this is another person that just cannot let that shit go. I'm not trying to tell nobody to let it go, but I'm just saying maybe it really is something that cannot be let go. It's something here with this five of wands and a five of sword and they want to close out that cycle, but the King of Cups is in an eight of sword. They really can't get past that. What is this? We got the full card like King of Cups.

10

King of Swords

King of Swords: authority · truth

Okay, so I do feel like the King of Sword and the King of Cups are different. I feel like the King of Sword wants to change something, but I don't think the King of Cups, I don't think the King of Cups is with it. I don't think they are. We got the full card. So it's new energy, new everything, new karma. Like somebody does not want, if this King of Cups and the King of Sword are separate people, the King of Cups does not want nothing to do with the King of Sword period. The King of Cups, they feel some type of weight. Their feelings mean stuff. It means something to them. What's this energy?

11

The Lovers

The Lovers: union · a choice

And then we have the Knight of Cups. It looked like somebody has given or invested what they can and they're ready to just move forward. And it is sad. And I mean, I don't know how else to see it.

16

Four of Pentacles

Four of Pentacles: control · security

We have the four of Pentacles here.

17

Page of Cups: intuition · messages

The Page of Cups, like somebody really wants to hold onto this. They really want to hold on. They want another chance perhaps. And it's just like emotionally. Sometimes emotions are telling you everything you need to know. Like everybody's different. You can't make somebody, you can change yourself, but you don't, I don't know how to say like, it doesn't have to be so that somebody can be in your life. You could just change just to better yourself. You know, if you're changing only because you want to keep somebody, I mean, that's not bad, but what if that person don't want to keep you? You could still change. You know, it just, it feels like someone can not like emotionally let something go. Like something is stuck with them. You know, it's like, you know, when something bad happens to you and it's a memory that's stuck with you. I feel like that's how the King of Cups is. And the King of Cups feels like they've given what they can give and they ready to go give somewhere else. They ready to invest in another partnership, relationship, connection. That's what it looked like in this reading. You know, I hate to say that, but it just seemed like no matter what the King of Swords do, and it'd be like that sometime. It'd truly be like that. I mean, depending on what happened, because five of swords, I mean, five of wands and five of swords together, that's never good. That's very, that's extremely challenging. That could be yelling, screaming, fighting. That could be every type of problem you can think of. That's not resolved. And it's like, yeah, I see that the King of Swords, they want to close that cycle. But sometimes, how can I say, you don't need to walk through the closure together. I don't know. It's different. I think sometimes people think they need you to stay with them in order for this to be a true healing. But sometimes healing happens like on your own. Like sometimes things happen to people. You can't stay there, because that's like keeping a wound open. That's what it looked like. I don't blame this King of Cups. King of Swords don't think the same way. They don't think the same way. They can see like they're trying to do something. Clearly they're trying to do it because they see, or they may care. They may care a little bit. Maybe.

18

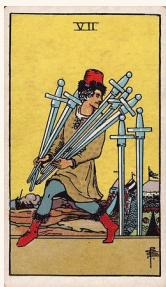

Ace of Cups

Ace of Cups: new love · feeling

Yeah, we got the Ace of Cups here. Okay. They may care now. Let's say it. Maybe they didn't care in the past, but maybe they care now.

19

Seven of Swords

Seven of Swords: deception · strategy

Oh no, we got the Seven of Swords. No, you see like this is why somebody, you just need to heal on your own. Whoever this King of Cups is, they do need to go. They do need to go, because the King of Swords, they just have motives. Like I don't know why they want to be connected to you, but it's not really about love. It's some type of scheme, some type of scam. And that's why the King of Cups is right to just move on. Like it's something that it just can't be, it can't be changed. Like everybody ain't went through shit like that. Not everybody, you know, some people, it's okay. Everybody ain't got to go through shit like that. But for the people that have been through things that you ain't never going back to some shit, or you ain't never turning around. You ain't never giving that opportunity. You ain't never gonna go through this shit again. Like whatever this Five of Wands and Five of Swords, it's never again, never. And here they are with a fucking motive. So I don't blame the King of Cups for moving forward. It's been enough. It's been, yeah, moving forward, moving away from this shit right here. No, no, no, no, no, no. You see that? That's why somebody got to go.

20

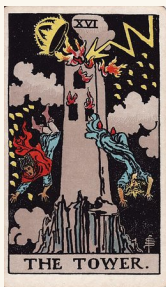

The Chariot

The Chariot: willpower · drive

And then the next card was a chariot. That's why somebody got to go. Oh, look at that.

21

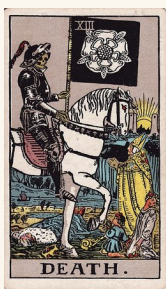

The Tower

The Tower: sudden upheaval · collapse

King of Swords and Tower was here together. So I guess they thought this would never happen, or they thought this was impossible, or they thought somebody couldn't walk away. That lie is being shattered. That's how I look. What is this energy here?

22

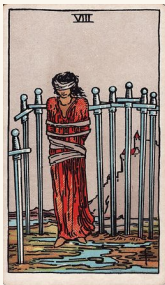

Death

Death: endings · transformation

We have the death card. I mean, it's speaking for itself. Look, somebody really, you really did enough. You did enough and it's time to close the cycle. You don't need to feel guilty. This reading right here is for the King of Cups. The King of Cups don't need to feel guilty for closing the cycle. Sometimes it doesn't get where you want to look confirmation. Sometimes it don't get where you want it to go. Sometimes the test is about knowing when to just let it go. And whatever, I feel like something is just like, like you can't forgive somebody for that. Forget like, how can I say it feels better to just let certain things go? Not saying like you don't feel something, you don't remember, but like, you can't keep that wound open. You just can't like this, just certain things. You just can't, it's just a will effect you. It'll stab you every time. You know, I don't know. Some people know and some people don't know. But if you don't know and you ever find out, you cannot like, there are some things you can't stay. There are some things you truly gotta let it go. There are some things where it's just truly like, your emotions are not gonna let it happen. That's exactly what it is. The King of Cups, their emotions are not gonna let it happen. Something is stuck with them. Something is burned into their psyche at this point.

23

Eight of Swords

Eight of Swords: restriction · fear

I clarified to Eight of Swords, that Eight of Swords came out. Like something is true to this King of Cups on an emotional level. And it's about this King of Swords. Like this King of Swords is who they are. And that's what this King of Cups knows for 100% sure. So it's sad, but King of Cups has done everything they can do. It doesn't matter what the King of Swords say, because they are manipulating and they have motives. You know, they really don't care. This shit is crazy. What is this energy here with this? That is just so sad though. We have the King of Cups. What's going on with the King of Cups?

24

King of Pentacles

King of Pentacles: success · stability

We have the King of Pentacles. So it could be about, you know, maybe the King of Cups got some type of money or something like that. Yeah, that's exactly what it is

25

The Devil

The Devil: bondage · attachment

because the Devil card came right back. They want a piece of some type of money. You know, the Devil is about materialism too. And the King of Pentacles just came out like they want with this King of Pentacles God. What's this energy?

26

Queen of Cups

Queen of Cups: compassion · empathy

Oh, we got the Queen of Cups also. What is this? It even looks, the King of Cups and the Queen of Cups, they're surrounding the King of Pentacles. There's two water energy surrounding the King of Pentacles. Water energies. Now, to me, I know we were not talking about, wait, let me look, and then we got the Devil of Fortune. I know we weren't talking about this King of Pentacles, but this looks peculiar to me. That looks peculiar to me. This must mean something to a person because these two people, they got cups. You see the King of Cups and the Queen of Cups? They're both looking at the King of Pentacles. Like they love him. They're both looking like that. I don't know who they are, but they're both looking at the King of Pentacles like this. We were never talking about the King of Pentacles in this reading, but look how they're looking at him. We were talking about the King of Cups. And then when these two came out, I still thought it was the King of Cups and how they're looking, right? But then when this come out, it looked like people are looking at this King of Pentacles. Whoever the King of Pentacles is, they're looking at the King of Pentacles. They could be trying to offer something. Yeah, they look like they're like, you know, what's this energy? What is this? And then we got the four sort of trying to make peace. Oh, five of the Pentacles. No, no, no, no, no. They trying to make peace. I don't know what's going on with them. I don't know if it's financially or spiritually or physically, but it's formative. So the king of cups knows what's going on. And they say it's trust the universe. And it says blessings and abundance. I'm going to leave this one right here. If you liked it or if you please like, share, and subscribe, thank you so much for your like, share, and subscribe. I truly appreciate it because it is how we get the messages out in order to elevate the collective. Let me go ahead with another reading. Later.
