Somebody's going from the Eight of Cups to the Nine. I see the Nine right there. And then the Three of Cups is a celebration here. So it is some type of opposing force that's trying to stand in the way of this King of Wands going deeper into something. But it's not going to be successful. But it is important to be aware because there's a resistance.

19

The Devil

The Devil: bondage · attachment

That's making me feel like that's the Devil and Disguise right there. And they're trying to move towards this King of Wands. They are the opposition. They are the thing that's going to try to block the King of Wands. It looks like it'll be like love, but that's not love. That's somebody with a plan. I always say that. We have the Page of Cups and the Star. It's something about wishing. I see this Page of Cups wishing on a Star. It's something this King of Wands is meant for, whether it's love or something else. They're meant for it. When you know that's not it, you have to accept that to open a new door. When you know you deserve it, between you and God, if you did the right thing, you know you deserve it. So don't deal with those demons trying to distract you. We got the Two of Cups here. This is somebody that deserves the Two of Cups. This is the Wish. This King of Wands is discovering more, going deeper. King of Wands is planning how they're going to do something and it has nothing to do with that demon. It has nothing to do with them, and them trying to pull or latch what is yours going naturally attract. It's natural. It's naturally going to happen. You don't got to do all that. I'm just being honest. Let me get an angel message here. Oh, it says, do the work. What's this card that fell down here? And it says, harmony and resolution. Yes, balance the scales.
